E Payment during the term of supervised release will commence within _____ (e.g., 30 or 60 days) after release from imprisonment. The court will set the payment plan based on an assessment of the defendant's ability to pay at that time; or

F Special instructions regarding the payment of criminal monetary penalties:

Payment of criminal monetary penalties is due during incarceration unless the court has expressly ordered otherwise. During incarceration, the Defendant shall make financial payments from any wages earned in accordance with the Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. Upon release, payment during the term of Supervised Release will commence within 60 days. The Court will set the payment plan based on an assessment of the Defendant's ability to pay at that time.

Criminal monetary penalties are due in full immediately and payable to the clerk of the court. The value of any future discovered assets may be applied to offset the balance of criminal monetary penalties. The Defendant may be included in the Treasury Offset Program allowing qualified federal benefits to be applied to offset the balance of criminal monetary penalties.

Unless the court has expressly ordered otherwise, if this judgment imposes imprisonment, payment of criminal monetary penalties is due during the period of imprisonment. All criminal monetary penalties, except those payments made through the Federal Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program, are made to the clerk of the court.

The defendant shall receive credit for all payments previously made toward any criminal monetary penalties imposed.
